TRIAL CHAMBER II (“Trial Chamber”) of the Special Court for Sierra Leone (“Special Court”), composed of Justice Richard Lussick, Presiding Judge, Justice Teresa Doherty and Justice Julia Sebutinde;

SEISED of the Confidential Prosecution Motion to Vary Protective Measures, filed on 18 October 2006 (“Motion”);

NOTING the Joint Defence Response to the Motion, filed on 20 October 2006 (“the Response”), wherein the Defence submits that they do not oppose the Prosecution Motion;

NOTING FURTHER that the Motion was filed confidentially, even though no identifying data of any witness was disclosed;

RECALLING the Order Changing Venue of Proceedings dated 19 June 2006<sup>1</sup> in which the President of the Special Court found, inter alia, that “the proceedings against Mr. Taylor should be conducted by the Special Court for Sierra Leone sitting at The Hague, the Netherlands and using facilities provided by the International Criminal Court”<sup>2</sup> and authorised Trial Chamber II and the Appeals Chamber “to exercise their functions away from the seat of the Special Court for the purposes of conducting the pre-trial proceedings, trial and any appeal of Charles Ghankay Taylor at the International Criminal Court facilities in The Hague, The Netherlands”;<sup>3</sup>

NOTING that the Motion seeks to vary the protective measures ordered in respect of all the Prosecution witnesses set to testify in the case of The Prosecutor v. Charles Ghankay Taylor in order to permit the Office of the Prosecutor (“OTP”) and the Witnesses and Victims Section of the Special Court (“WVS”) to provide documents and information that may reveal the names and other identifying data of a protected witness to government or other authorities for the purposes of facilitating his or her travel to and appearance before the Special Court sitting in The Hague, Netherlands;<sup>4</sup>

NOTING the Prosecution submissions that “in view of the transfer of the Accused Charles Taylor, to stand trial in The Hague, Prosecution witnesses may be required to travel to the Netherlands to testify, most likely via third countries. In order for WVS to be able to book tickets and obtain passports and visas for witnesses, it will be necessary for the identities of protected witnesses to be disclosed to airlines and governmental authorities of the various States including immigration authorities”<sup>5</sup> and that “in order to put appropriate protective measures in place to enhance or alter the specific measures required by a witness, it may be necessary for the Prosecution and WVS to reveal the identity of a protected witness or his or her dependants to government or other authorities, or to provide to government or other authorities documents or other materials that may reveal the identity of a protected witness or his or her dependants” (sic);<sup>6</sup>

NOTING Rules 75 (G) and (H) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“the Rules”) which provide:

(G) A party to the second proceedings seeking to rescind, vary or augment protective measures ordered in the first proceedings shall apply to the Chamber seized of the second proceedings.

(H) Before determining an application under Sub-Rule (G) above, if the effect of the change serves to decrease the protective measures granted to the victim or witness by the Chamber in the first proceedings, the Chamber seized of the second proceedings shall obtain all relevant information from the first proceedings, and may consult with any Judge who ordered the protective measures in the first proceedings, or the relevant Chamber.

RECALLING that protective measures have previously been ordered in respect of witnesses or victims in earlier proceedings (“the first proceedings”) before this court<sup>7</sup> and that pursuant to Rule 75 (F) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Special Court (“Rules”), such protective measures shall continue to have effect mutatis mutandis with respect to the same witnesses or victims testifying in the case of The Prosecutor vs. Charles Ghankay Taylor (“the second proceedings”);

RECALLING ALSO the protective measures ordered by the Trial Chamber in the second proceedings;<sup>8</sup>

CONSIDERING therefore that this motion is wrongly filed in this case, since the present proceedings are not “the second proceedings” within the meaning of Rule 75 (G) of the Rules;

CONSIDERING FURTHER that the Trial Chamber has, in any event, issued its Decision on the Confidential Prosecution Motion to Vary Protective Measures,<sup>9</sup> varying the existing protective measures for all witnesses set to testify at the trial of Charles Ghankay Taylor;

<sup>7</sup> These include the following orders, namely, Prosecutor v. Brima, SCSL-03-06-PT-36, Decision on the Prosecution’s Motion for Immediate Protective Measures for Witnesses and Victims and for Non-public Disclosure, 23 May 2003; *Prosecutor v.
