7. . Bobor Brima (civilian, Koribondo) Date of birth: 4/5/68 Place of birth: Koribondo Occupation: Business Religion: Christianity Father's name: Brima Lahai Mother's name: Mariama Lahai Address: Koribondo	Witness will testify as follows, amongst others, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - That when in 1996 chiefs and elders in Koribondo urged to volunteer to join Kamajor society for defending the town, he did not join it because of other commitments but that he supported the idea and its processes by contributing -That after the overthrow of the SLPP government by the soldiers in May 1997, soldiers and rebels were now workinh together and were based in Koribondo while Kamajors took into the bush -How rebels used to disguise themselves with Kamajors ronkos and committed atrocities so that people would blame the Kamajors -That during the first attack by the kamajors on soldiers and rebels in Koribondo in 1997, witness elder sister Jatu Brima's son was amonst the attacking kamajors. He was shot by soldiers and witness was summoned to the scene, but he died upon her arrival there. That about 23 rebels and 2 soldiers were killed in this attack, but no civilian casualties. -How kamajors usually sent advanced warnings to civilians in the town before attacking so as to avoid or reduce civilian casualties. -That kamajors usually sent warnings to civilians in the twon before attacking so as to avoid civilian casualties -That in another kamajor attack later on, many kamajors were killed again and one civilian was caught by a stray bullet in the cross fire. -That witness stayed throughout in koribondo up to the 3r kamajor attack and even their 4th attack on 12th February 1998, which later lasted about 20 to 30 minutes only. -That during the 4th attack soldiers claimed that their boss JP Koroma had requested them to report at headquarters. That as soldiers withdrew they said civilians staying behind will be killed by the kamajors and so over 300 civilians moved with them, including witness who went to Bo. -That there was even more fighting in Bo upon arrival there -That at night in Bo, rebels climbed into house where witness was staying, looting the house including his bicycle, tape recorder, mattress and money amounting to Le 384.000 and all remaining trade items he used to sell. 	Paragraphs 13, 15, 23, 24c, 25d(counts 1-2), 26b(counts 3-4), 27(count5), 28(counts 6-7)	In person (Mende) 3 hours	None
--	--	---	---	-------------

	-That some two months afterwards, on 14th April 1998, witness went back to koribondo to check on the situation. That upon arraival, kamajors received him gladly and asked him to join the kamajor team that was due to play a friendly football match against the civilians since he used to play football for the soldiers in koribondo. That witness joined the kamajor team and won the game. -That witness returned to Bo to collect his family for final return to koribondo. That witness saw one Brima whom civilians killed because he used to betray various civilian hideouts to rebels so that they could loot and give his own share of the loot. -That when witness returned to koribondo he found many houses burnt, including four of his own houses, but that he did not know who burnt them.

	met witness, checked the installed communication set, gave drugs, tobacco, cigarettes and some money. How the lady explained that she has great respect for the kamajors as they rescued her raped by soldiers in Bo. -That witness was appointed battalion commander for the 3rd battalion 16/02/98 -That he never witness any meeting held by Norman in Dassamu -That in the 4th attack on koribondo witness was responsible for immobilising any possible reinforcement for soldiers from Bo Brigade, which he effectively early on 13/02/98, including immobilising a Mr. Sinneh Bangura in Kebbie Town, reputed to be a herbalist for the juntas -How witness led his group of Kmajors to Boon 15/02/98 a Sunday, entering along the Bo-Kenema Highway, and releasing warning shots they saw a huge crowd of jubilating people coming towards them. That on the second day intensive firing came from outskirts of Bo from combatants wearing kamajor dress and camouflage and thereby making it difficult to know who the attackers are. That witness and his group retreated to Bandajuma on Bo-Kenema Highway, and waited there until Ecomog joined them for the recapture of Bo. How the combined force of Ecomog and kamajor force retook Bo and made defensive deployments. -How witness was always guided by the precepts and principles of conduct and combat ingrained into him by the kamajor initiation process.
9. . Joe Nunie (former battalion commander) Date of birth : 4/4/56 Place of Birth : Bonthe Occupation: Driving Religion:Christianity Father's name: Joseph Nunie	-How the War Council mandated Albert Nallo to replace Vanjawai with Joe Taimidey as commander for Jaima Bongor chieftdom while witness was made deputy commander. - How Nallo brought logistics from the war council with instructions from the war council to capture Koribondo - How before the attack Joe Taimiday's uncle was killed at Koribondo and his guts were removed and used as check point - What happened to captured soldiers at Koribondo and the weapons and artilleries recovered from the soldiers. - How Bo was captured by Kamajors under the command of Ecomog and	Paragraphs 13, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 23, 24c & f, 25d & g(counts 1-2)	In person (English) 3 hours	None

Mother's name: Lilly Nunnie Address: Ngelehun, Bo District	how Kamajors received instructions from Ecomog under Major Orlu who ordered them to capture the Brigade in Bo. -During the attack on Bo Albert Nallo told them that they should loot and that when Chief Norman heard that, he immediately sacked Nallo from his position. -That Alhaji Daramy Rogers was the Bo Administtraor who requested that all captured soldiers be handed to Ecomog - How 46 soldiers captured in Koribondo were handed to Ecomog in 1998 -How weapons and artilleries, antisircraft, GPMG, mortars were captured from soldiers in Koribondo -How some houses caught fire in Koribondo through the exchange of heavy gun fire
10. . Haroun (Aruna) Collier (Talía Yawbekow, Bonthe District) Date of birth: 5/3/73 Place of birth: Talia Yawbeko chiefdom Father's name: Mohamed Turay Collier Mother's name: N/A Religion: Islam Address: Papah village, Yawbeko chiefdom	Witness will testify as follows, amongst others: -That he has lived in Talia for most of his life -That rebels had attacked Talia in at least two waves earlier. First in 1991, when they burnt houses, seized food and goats, which they forced local civilians to transport for them to Torma Bun where they came from but were later dislodged by soldiers. Nest in late 1994 and early 1995 from Matta Jong and were then based in Talia from February 1995, when kamajor groups led by Rufus Collier and Lamina Gbo-Kambama respectively dislodged them from Talia and surrounding chiefdoms -That up until around 1995, witness used to fight with a kamajor group based at Karleh-Wajama, though he was not himself yet a kamajor -That around December, 1995 elders of Talia Yawbekow arranged for a kamajor initiation based to be established at Mokosi, near Talia, and witness became one among the first set of person initiated there by King Kondewa -How witness was impressed by the fairly well structured ritual process or processes of kamajor initiation, including the sponsor's selection process, the initiator's "damba-muama-wai"("crocodile's grand ablution") rite, the pre-initiation dishing out of moral precepts and taboos or laws, the overnight cemetery rite, the immunization act itself, the individual or group testing, the	Paragraphs 13, 23, 24e, f, 27, 28	In person (Mende) 4 hours	None

	initiators public chanting all over again of precepts and laws , and the festive graduation handing over of initiates back to the community sponsors -How the first combat encounter by the first Mokosi initiates was at Kpangbaya in Bagbo chiefdom around January 2006 against the heavy fire of rebels based there, but which was greatly successful in that a small number of kamajor initiates routed the rebels without any kamajor casualty at all. A rebel attack on the nearby town of Senjehun was also successfully repelled. How these initial successes greatly increased confidence in the kamajor initiation -How kamajor initiation was greatly boosted in Mokosi by surrounding chiefdoms bringing many people there for initiation How numerous requests to initiate younger children led to slight modification for children for the sole purpose of immunising them for the protection against gun-shots and not for direct combat purposes. How the first children's initiation group was attacked by rebels during graduation around March-April 1996, but none was injured, the witness being among the adult kamajors who went to the rescued. -How other initiation centres sprang up in other towns like Senyehun, Tihun, Kangahun, Kuellu and other places in the Bonthe, Bo and Moyamba districts. And how kamajors soon cleared many surrounding chiefdoms of rebel infestation eg Bum, Bagbo, Lugbu and Bumpeh Chiefdoms and the entire Bonthe District. -How witness led a kamajor group in the Kangahun Kwellu-Pathbana axis between Moyamba and Tonkolili Districts up till around April 1997 when he went on a visit to Bo - How witness was in Bo for about 2 days when the Kabbah government was overthrown by soldiers, later joined by RUF rebels. How soldiers invaded house at 82 Dambara Road, Bo, where witness was staying, and looted it and terrorised the occupants, witness barely escaping with his life and returned to Talia soon afterwards -How at early meetings in Talia and Tihun kamajors and local people

	resolved to resist the coupist soldiers and restore the Tejan Kabbah government, especially the meeting at Tihun some two weeks after that at Talia. How kamajors, chiefdom elders and dignitaries from several surrounding chiefdoms from Bo, Bonthe and Moyamba Districts attended the Tihun meeting. -How at the first Talia meeting, the people established a special fighting group to protect Bonthe District, and how various names were considered for this group but finally settled upon calling it Death Squad mainly because the members were supposed to be so fearless of death that they face the fiercest rebel invasion and turn the invaders into death itself. One Boboh Tucker (alias Jegbeyama) became the leader of the new Death Squad, and witness (alias Hardway) became its Frontline Commander and Yassin Collier its Secretary. How the chiefdom people instructed that specific rules, regulations or laws be clearly spelt out for the operations of the new Death Squad , and which was duly and immediately done. How Death Squad took a base at Sumbuya Junction on the Bo-Mattru Road and conducted raids on rebel bases far and wide, with great success and seizing of large quantities of arms and ammunition, which was taken to Talia and distributed among other Kamajor groups -How at a subsequent meeting at Talia, the people decided to seek contact with President Kabbah in Guinea through his Deputy Minister of Defence, Chief Hinga Norman, who was reportedly in Monrovia. The people decided and sent emissaries to Monrovia, the second group with a tape of recorded messages requesting Norman to Visit Talia for representations to be made to him about their resistance struggle and plans for onward transmission to President Kabbah. -How not long afterwards Chief Norman did come to Talia by Helicopter with several supplies of arms, ammunitions, food and others. And how Norman then established at Talia. -How in subsequent weeks several important persons came to Talia from other places in Sierra Leone and a war council later formed there
--	---	--	--	--

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -How from time to time Norman left Talia for Monrovia and Conakry and later returned with more supplies and messages from President Kabbah, handing them over to the war council -How witness once overheard a conversation over the satellite phone between President Kabbah and Chief Norman -How on one occasion Gen. Khobe came to Talia by helicopter, addressed the people at a meeting, witnessed exhibition of a locally manufactured device for deflecting enemy fire called the “controller” which he later took away -How war council later on ordered a 3rd attack on Koribondo, in which witness took part, was even wounded in the knee, but the attack failed and how that was the last war engagement of the witness.
