TRIAL CHAMBER II (“Trial Chamber”) of the Special Court for Sierra Leone (“Special Court”); SEISED of the “Public with Annexes A-J and Confidential Annexes K-L Defence Motion for Admission of Documents Pursuant to Rule 92bis – Special Task Force”, filed on 9 September 2010 (“Motion”),¹ wherein the Defence requests the Trial Chamber, pursuant to Rule 92bis of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”), to admit into evidence the following eleven documents (“Defence Documents”) relating to the Special Task Force (“STF”) of the Republic of Sierra Leone Armed Forces,² on the grounds that the material sought to be admitted into evidence satisfies the requirements of Rule 92bis in that the evidence is relevant, susceptible of confirmation, and does not go to proof of the acts and conduct of the Accused:³

- (a) Document DCT-451, titled “Comprehensive Nominal Roll of STF (Liberian) Dropped from the Sierra Leone Army since 12 November 2000, and Due for One-Off Ex-Gratia Cash Payment,” which the Defence submits, is a list of 29 Liberian fighters in the STF that formed part of the SLA as late as November 2000 and who were “dropped” after 12 November 2000;⁴
- (b) Document DCT-452, comprising hand-written notes⁵, David Livingstone Mah Bropleh’s “Passport/Laissez-Passer Application Form” which, the Defence submits, proves that Bropleh, a Liberian national was residing in Sierra Leone in July 1997 when the STF was functioning as part of the SLA/AFRC, and his “Curriculum Vitae” which, the Defence submits, indicates the nature of his military education and experience and corroborates the Accused’s testimony about Bropleh’s background and role in the conflict in Sierra Leone and Liberia;⁶
- (c) Document DCT-453, a cover letter STF/HQ/SL/22/A dated 1 July 2000, from Lt. Col. Siaka S. Kiawu, Administration Officer STF, Office of the Special Task Force Defence Headquarters, Cockerill North Wilkison [sic] Road, Freetown, to Defence Headquarters, Cockerill North Wilkinson Road, Freetown,” requesting payment for hotel bills for the months of June and July 2000, for rooms occupied by B/General David L. Bropleh,

NOTING the Defence submission that it seeks to admit the Defence Documents in order to develop the evidence already on record about the STF as well as to explain the presence and allegiance of “Liberian fighters” in Sierra Leone during the Indictment period;¹⁷

NOTING also the “Prosecution Objections to Public with Annexes A-J and Confidential Annexes K-L Defence Motion for Admission of Documents Pursuant to Rule 92bis - Special Task Force”, filed on 14 September 2010 (“Objections”),¹⁸ wherein the Prosecution opposes the admission of Defence Documents set out in Annexes H and J on the ground that those two documents do not satisfy the requirements of Rule 92bis(B) in that they are irrelevant to the purpose for which they are submitted;¹⁹

NOTING further that the Prosecution, while describing the proposed evidence generally as “unduly cumulative,”²⁰ does not oppose the admission of the remainder of the Defence Documents contained in Annexes A to G, Annex I and Confidential Annexes K to L;²¹

NOTING ALSO the “Defence Reply to Prosecution Objections to Defence Motion for Admission of Documents Pursuant to Rule 92bis - Special Task Force”, filed on 15 September 2010 (“Reply”);²²

COGNISANT of Rule 92bis which provides:

Rule 92bis: Alternative Proof of Facts

- (A) In addition to the provisions of Rule 92ter, a Chamber may, in lieu of oral testimony, admit as evidence in whole or in part, information including written statements and transcripts, that do not go to proof of the acts and conduct of the accused.
- (B) The information submitted may be received in evidence if, in the view of the Trial Chamber, it is relevant to the purpose for which it is submitted and if its reliability is susceptible of confirmation.
- (C) A party wishing to submit information as evidence shall give 10 days notice to the opposing party. Objections, if any, must be submitted within 5 days.

CONSIDERING that the effect of Rule 92bis is to permit in lieu of oral evidence, the reception of information, - assertions of fact (but not opinion) including, but not limited to, written statements

¹⁷ Motion, paras 8-10.

¹⁸ SCSL-03-01-T-1072.

¹⁹ Objection, paras 2, 4-6, 11.

²⁰ Objections, paras 7-10.

²¹ Objection, paras 3, 10, 12.

²² SCSL-03-01-T-1074.

and transcripts that do not go to proof of the acts and conduct of the Accused - if such facts are relevant and their reliability is "susceptible of confirmation;"²³

FINDING that Defence Documents DCT-460 and Annex J are relevant to the purpose for which they are submitted and that the issues raised by the Prosecution relating to the identity of the addressee, the date and the incompleteness of the document contained in Annex J are factors that go to the weight of the evidence rather than its admissibility;

SATISFIED that all Defence Documents meet the requirements of Rule 92bis(A) & (B) in that (i) they do not go to proof of the acts and conduct of the Accused, (ii) are relevant to the purpose for which they are submitted, and (iii) their reliability is susceptible of confirmation;

PURSUANT to Rule 26bis, 73(A), 89(C) and 92bis of the Rules;
